“Where
Words fail,
music
speaks”

Hans Christian
Anderson

“The true
beauty of music is that it connects people. It carries a message, and we, the
musicians,
are the messengers.”

Roy Ayers

Hi Everyone,

Welcome to our 2017 music@millthorpe concert.

Music@millthorpe is a celebration of our wonderful students, their teachers and achievements.

At Millthorpe we are able to offer a range of music education options, including piano, violin, junior band, senior band, guitar, recorders, drums and percussion. We have senior and junior choirs as well as the Millthorpe Little Big Band.

Our students have been busy practicing for eisteddfod, AMEB examinations, and performances at the Opera House, they are well primed to present their music to you tonight. Please enjoy music@millthorpe 2017.

During the first section our junior performers will entertain and delight you. After interval you are welcome to take tired young performers home, or stay on and be an audience for the Senior students, who will conclude the night at approx. 9pm.

Tea and coffee is available for adults at intermission, and a soft drink for students.

We hope you enjoy music@millthorpe 2017.
